

Our Cross-Border and International claims team invites you to a seminar on:

Jurisdiction in cross-border tort claims

5 PM - 6 PM Monday, 12th March 2018
at Outer Temple Chambers

Join us for the session which will include a Q&A section followed by drinks

Panel speakers include: Sarah Crowther QC, Dan Clarke and William Young.

During this informative session, Sarah, Dan and Will discuss the outcome of the jurisdiction challenge in the Brownlie v Four Seasons Supreme Court decision, and what it means for jurisdiction in international claims.

Why attend?

This seminar is for all those whose caseload includes jurisdiction disputes in civil and commercial matters of a non-contractual nature, including personal injury and economic tort claims.
