

APIL abuse conference 2022

Held in association with ACAL

Thursday, 23 June 2022

Attend at the Marriott Marble Arch Hotel, London or Virtually

HYBRID EVENT

APIL is delighted to be returning to the Marriott Marble Arch Hotel in London for their 14th annual abuse conference, which is being held in association with ACAL.

This will be a hybrid event and delegates are invited to choose to either attend in person, or virtually, via the APIL app. All delegates will receive access to the recording of the conference and this will be available to view, on demand, for a period of six months.

Topics include:

- Survivors of sexual abuse and the criminal justice system
- Client welfare and the role of the ISVA
- Vicarious liability
- The latest on failure to remove claims
- Claims for racial abuse
- The principle of just satisfaction in HRA claims
- Psychiatry & vulnerable clients
- Legal costs

Please see overleaf for the full programme

ALL delegates will receive access to the virtual platform - view live on the day or watch the recording, on demand, at a time to suit you!

- All delegates receive a unique log-in and they can then view the conference via the APIL App or from their desktop browser.
- The full conference programme will be available to view live, with comfort breaks.
- All sessions will be available to view on demand, at your convenience, for 6 months after the live event date.
- Conference materials and slides (that have been cleared by our speakers) will be provided in an electronic format, via the virtual platform.
- Delegates will be given the opportunity to participate in a live Q&A session at the end of each presentation.
- Networking - you will be able to network with other conference delegates and speakers, via our interactive 1:1 chats and 'Direct messaging' service.

Registrations are for individual delegates only and the personal unique links must not be shared
