

ASSOCIATION OF PENSION LAWYERS DISPUTE RESOLUTION COMMITTEE FORUM ON 3 JULY 2025

Pension law give and take? Cross-fertilisation with other areas of legal practice: some thoughts.

In this forum, we will explore cases in which public law, private trusts law and contract law have been imported into pensions and, on occasions, where developed principles have been re-exported, enabling us to consider the scope for further cross-fertilisation.

We shall highlight potentially lesser known cases and concepts from which pensions practitioners might profit and consider when it might be appropriate for similar concepts to evolve in parallel.

Speakers: David E Grant KC, Naomi Ling and Philip Stear (all of Outer Temple Chambers)

Date and time: Thursday 3 July 2025, 5.45pm for a prompt start at 6pm.

Location: Gowling WLG (UK) LLP, 4 More London PI, London SE1 2AU.

Members may also attend the forum remotely. The cost of attending the forum (in person or remotely) will be £20, payable by bank transfer using the details below.

To book your place if you wish to attend in person or remotely, please use the following link: <https://bit.ly/4kTfL8H> or the QR code below.

---

Refunds

If, having paid, you can no longer attend the forum, except in exceptional personal circumstances (at the discretion of the organisers) refunds will not be provided. Pressure of work and transport difficulties will not be treated as exceptional personal circumstances.

However, you may also swap your place with another eligible person within your organisation.

If you wish to apply for a refund or swap your place, in the first instance you should contact Jodie Boszormenyi (jodie.boszormenyi@uk.gowlingwlq.com) as soon as possible.

Attendance requirements

The APL is committed to ensuring all of its members feel respected and included. We will do our best to make reasonable adjustments to facilitate individuals attending events.

You can specify any requirements you would like to have considered in the booking form, alternatively please contact Jodie Boszormenyi as above.