Ahmed practices in commercial litigation, commercial-chancery, and international arbitration.

His experience spans construction, company and shareholder disputes, insolvency, shipping and commodities, civil fraud, partnerships, banking and financial services, and sanctions.

Ahmed has extensive advocacy and witness-handling experience in multi-day trials and heavy applications. He has particular experience being instructed as sole counsel to deal with urgent interlocutory applications such as freezing orders, search orders, and anti-suit injunctions.

A significant portion of his practice centres on international commercial disputes in arbitration and offshore jurisdictions, with a focus on the Middle East.

Ahmed has worked on several matters in international common law courts including the DIFC, ADGM, AIFC, and in offshore jurisdictions including the BVI and Cayman Islands.

He is also admitted as an arbitrator with DIAC and LAMC. He is particularly well-placed to work on dual-language arbitrations as he writes and speaks Arabic fluently.

Ahmed graduated from King's College London top of his class and won a number of academic awards. He then read for the BCL at Oriel College Oxford and undertook the Bar Course at City Law School as Cassel Scholar of Lincoln's Inn, graduating with a distinction.

Before coming to the Bar, Ahmed was Visiting Lecturer at King's College London and Guest Lecturer at LSE. He also interned with the International Arbitration group at Wilmerhale where he assisted with editing and updating Gary Born's International Commercial Arbitration.

Recent and ongoing instructions include:

- Commercial/arbitration: Instructed (by DLA Piper) in an application for an anti-suit injunction listed for 1 day in the Commercial Court. Underlying value of claim circa £30 million. Instructed as sole counsel against very experienced senior counsel from specialist shipping Chambers.
- Commercial: Instructed as junior counsel in an 11-day trial listed in the Circuit Commercial Court in 2026.
