Christophe Jolk is an international business lawyer.

Christophe is a dual French and German citizen, registered with the Paris, New York and Luxembourg Bars.

Due to his background and global positioning, his practice focuses on international business and private wealth management matters in four areas:

- International business transactions
- International tax structuring for businesses and private clients
- Real estate transactions (commercial and high profile residential) – including intermediation
- Commercial and white collar crime litigation

Christophe acts as the global personal counsel to his clients. His understanding of and empathy for various cultures and legal systems means that he is able to accompany clients on their international projects to assist them with specialist legal issues. He often travels between different client sites to better coordinate effective legal strategies.
