Ludovica hold a master's degree in law (University of Parma, Italy, 2009), is an Italian qualified lawyer since 2013 and a Registered European Lawyer for England and Wales since 2015 (she is also registered for direct access and qualified for litigation). She works in Italy and in Vienna, Austria, which is her second home since 2010.

She specialises in International Administrative Law ('IAL'), representing and advising international civil servants and international organisations in a wide range of employment disputes as well as negotiating settlements and alternative dispute resolution options, inter alia, at EBRD, BIS, WBG, UNIDO, UNODC, IAEA, IOM, ITLOS, IMO, OPEC, PAHO, WFP, INTERPOL, ECMWF, ICMPD and EPO. Her focus is on European and International Courts (UNAT, ILOAT, ECJ, WBAT, EBRDAT, BISAT, etc.). She is currently standing counsel to several Staff Associations, which she regularly advises on individual staff disputes and on the review of the regulatory and legal framework of their respective organisations (e.g. Global Fund, EUMETSAT, OECD, PAHO, ICMPD, ECMWF, ICC, WIPO). Ludovica has experience in advising on the adjustment of salary packages, pension and tax schemes, and fundamental rights in employment contracts. Ludovica also provides weekly staff clinics to the members of the Vienna-based (UNOV) Staff Associations/Unions, and has extensive experience advising on harassment complaints, disciplinary procedures, redundancy, unethical conduct and retaliation.

Ludovica has experience as an international civil servant herself (at the Italian Permanent Mission to the United Nations in Vienna, at the OSCE and at CTBTO), as well as experience in anti-corruption policies and integrity compliance programmes. She maintained working relationship with the OSCE and CTBTO for which she provides ad hoc consultancy services in the field of legal services and HR policy review.
