Percival (Percy) Billimoria, started his legal career with Arthur Andersen in 1987 and is also qualified as a Chartered Accountant. He is known for his extensive experience as an arguing counsel in adversarial matters (litigation and arbitration) concerning international companies and investors doing business in India.

Percy is listed in the Who's Who Litigation Guide – 2021, and Chambers & Partners recognises him as being well-known for his expertise in litigation in the areas of joint ventures, infrastructure projects and project finance. He has also been recognised by Asia Pacific Legal 500 as one of the leading individuals in India and as a "fine lawyer" and a leading individual who comes "highly recommended". In 2021, Chambers & Partners stated that Percival is highly respected by clients in New Delhi for his advocacy skills in civil and commercial litigation. He is described by a market source as "a brilliant counsel."

Landmark Matters: Arbitration Jurisprudence in the Supreme Court

Percy represented clients in shaping the jurisprudence on arbitration in the following landmark matters:

Swiss Timing vs Organising Committee, Commonwealth Games 2010, Delhi

Percy successfully represented Swiss Timing as lead counsel. The Supreme Court in a landmark decision settled the question of whether an allegation of fraud is "arbitrable".

Pricol Limited vs. Johnson Controls Enterprise Ltd. & Ors

Percy successfully represented Johnson Controls as lead counsel. The Supreme Court addressed a pathological arbitration clause and referred the parties to arbitration by virtually re-drafting the
