Graham Woods is an Associate Director in the Clerking Team at Outer Temple Chambers.

Having been in the legal profession for his entire career, Graham has a wealth of experience stretching across all fields of work undertaken by Chambers, now focusing on the Health Department.

Graham is responsible for key diary and administrative tasks within the Health Department. A major responsibility is the oversight and management of Chambers' CFAs, our CFA policies and agreements with our key clients. He prides himself on professionalism and approachability in order to achieve results and is described by Chambers & Partners as "a real pleasure to work with".

Graham leads a mentoring programme to support pupils and junior tenants as well as aspiring silks in preparation for future applications. He also provides mentoring support to junior members of the Practice Management teams, drawing on his many years' experience in clerking.

Graham is a Member of The Legal Practice Managers Association (LPMA).
