Katie joined Outer Temple Chambers in August 2023 as a junior clerk, working closely alongside the health and business teams. Her main duties include assisting barristers to and from courts, lodging documents to courts, logging cases onto the system, returning papers to clients and helping with the general day to day running of the clerk's room.

Prior to joining Outer Temple Chambers, Katie worked for an international bank providing financial market support, assisting front office, and liaising with dealers on a day-to-day basis supporting them with any queries they had.

During Katie's A-level studies, she achieved various academic awards and was appointed a Sociology mentor, providing support to younger students within that subject area.
