Lindsey Richardson provides support to the senior executive team within chambers. She supports Steve Graham and Stuart Haynes in the management of various projects, as well as coordination of their commitments and diaries.

Lindsey also plays an integral part in maintaining relationships with key stakeholders and clients.

Lindsey is a qualified accountant and has previously worked as a management accountant and in financial support roles before taking on the role of Executive Assistant at a leading national real estate firm. She joined Outer Temple Chambers in 2021. Her combined experience means she is perfectly placed to manage the multiple operational and finance related demands of the senior executive team.
