Paul Carver is a Senior Fees Clerk at Outer Temple Chambers, working alongside Judy Gant.

Paul and Judy oversee a team of four and deal with all types of credit control and fee agreements with solicitor, lay and corporate clients. They also manage strategies for collection of fees and cash flow predictions for the business.

Paul has worked in the legal sector for over thirty years, starting a career as a barristers clerk and holding senior roles in a number of leading barristers chambers. He then trained as costs lawyer and worked in-house in government and with solicitors as well as freelance. In the last few years Paul has held senior roles as credit controller/fees clerks in barrister's chambers.

Paul is a proud father of three, and in his spare time is a keen musician and City of London Tour Guide.
